"SExey" Exe or time for a quick "Exeit"
An e-learning Journey

Angela Macfarlane & Michelle Robson
Senior Lecturers
Programme Leaders, LL.M Employment Law In Practice & LLM Medical Law
Northumbria Law School
The Students
The Students

“How do you feel about letting your people work from home?”
The Students

"Human Resources."
The Lecturers
Life Before Exe

- Distance learning
  - Workbooks
  - Self Test Questions – separate answer book
  - Study days
  - Recorded Lectures
Our Aim

- To make learning more interactive
- To bridge the distance learning divide
- To provide learning materials in an accessible user friendly format
- And for the students to enjoy the learning experience!
Exe – What is it?

- J:\Commercial contracts exe extract\index.html
Niggles with Exe

- Print function
- Formatting
- Hyperlinks
- Accessibility
- Time consuming
- Inconsistent
- Rigid
- Updating is problematic
- Clunky
What the students thought

Positives:
- Helped them learn
- Kept them motivated
- Helped with time management
- Liked the embedded links – saved a lot of time and reinforced the principles
- Easy to read and follow

Things to work on:
- Printable format
- More interactive links
- Tasks – do they work?
What Angela thought...
Leaving aside square eyes what we really thought

• Time intensive
• Yet to be convinced
• Second time may be better
• Virtual classroom
But Now....
Not so worried dinosaurs