- The NHS Plan (2000)
- The NMC Code of Professional Practice (2004)
- RCS Delivering High Quality Surgical Services for the Future (2006)

Scope of Professional Practice

- Launched in 1992
- Detailed how nurses could ‘advance roles’
- Didn’t say how!

Professional Code of Conduct

- Launched in 1992 (revised 2004)
- Purpose is to inform the professions of the standards of professional conduct required of them in the exercise of their professional accountability and practice
- 8 standards

Professional Code of Conduct

- Standard Four (7 subsections)
- As a registered nurse, midwife or specialist community public health nurse, you must cooperate with others in the team

Professional Code of Conduct

- Standard Six (5 subsections)
- As a registered nurse, midwife or specialist community public health nurse, you must maintain your professional knowledge and competence

What Does This Mean?

- Differing institutions interpreted the way forward differently.
- Differing levels of ‘advanced roles’
- Advanced roles still not concretely described by the nursing governing body
- No transferability

What Sunderland Eye Infirmary Did

- Searched Governing Body Guidelines
- Trust Agreement
- Legal (Trust) Advice
- Protocols
- Supervising Consultant Ophthalmologist

- Systems returned to pre-2002

Back to the Drawing Board

“The challenge is how to free you from old professional turf wars, how to liberate you from the remnants of the old ways of thinking. The answer I think is to encourage a new generation of entrepreneurial nurses. Nurse prescribing sends a powerful message to the public and others that nursing is not subservient to medicine but an equal part of the healthcare team....
...let's have more nurses employing more doctors.”

John Reid (then Health Secretary)
at Chief Nursing Officer's Conference Nov 2003
